IN CASE OF ERRORS OR QUESTIONS ABOUT YOUR STATEMENT

You must examine your statement of account with "reasonable promptness". If you discover (or reasonably should have discovered) any unauthorized signature or alterations, you must promptly notify us of the relevant facts. As between you and us, if you fail to do either of these duties you will have to either share the loss with us or bear the loss entirely yourself (depending on whether we used ordinary care and, if not, whether we contributed to the loss). This loss could be not only with respect to items on the statement but other items with unauthorized signatures or alteration by the same wrong doer.

You agree that the time you have to examine your statement and report to us will depend on the circumstances, but will not, in any circumstance, exceed a total of 30 days from when the statement is first sent or made available to you.

You further agree that if you fail to report any unauthorized signature, alterations, forgeries, or any of the errors in your account within 60 days of when we first send or make the statement available, you cannot assert a claim against us on any items in that statement, and as between you and us the loss will be entirely yours. This 60-day limitation is without regard to whether we used ordinary care. The limitation in this paragraph is in addition to that contained in the first paragraph of this section.

TERMS GOVERNING ACCOUNTS

Deposits in or presentments to the Bank of any item for a customer's account shall constitute the customer's consent to the terms hereof with respect to the account and all items deposited therein or presented to the Bank for payment. All deposits and collections shall be governed by the pertinent provisions of the Uniform Commercial Code – Bank Deposits & Collection (of Texas) as from time to time amended, or as varied by agreements permitted by that statute, including those hereinafter set out.

Receipt from others of items for credit to a customer's account shall render the customer liable to the Bank to the same extent as though they had been endorsed by and received directly from the customer. No money or item shall be deemed to have been received by the Bank unless it shall have issued a receipt therefore.

The account shall at all times be subject to service and maintenance charges according to the practice of the Bank prevailing at the time.

When the Bank deems such action proper, the Bank may require that the account be closed.

The provisions hereof shall control, in event of conflict with any deposit slip or passbook.

The Bank reserves the right to change the provisions hereof by printing on its statement Terms Governing Accounts, incorporating the change. The new Terms Governing Account will be effective, prospectively, when the statement containing the change is made available to the customer, by mailing or otherwise.
